

APPLICATION
AMERICAN STUDIES DISTINGUISHED MAJORS PROGRAM
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

Deadline: Wednesday, May 2, 2016, 5 pm

Current third-year students with at least a 3.4 PGA in the College of Arts and Sciences and a 3.6 GPA in the major are eligible to pursue Distinction. DMPs take a year-long independent study in their fourth year with a faculty advisor, with the goal of producing a thesis generally 35-50 pages in length. DMPs also take an additional course, AMST 4999, the Distinguished Majors Thesis Seminar, in the spring of their fourth year.

To apply, submit: 1) the form below; 2) a current transcript; and 3) a maximum one-page, double-spaced proposal of your intended thesis topic.

Return the application materials (stapled together, name on each page to:

Prof. Grace Hale
Departments of History
283 Nau Hall
hale@virginia.edu

AMERICAN STUDIES DISTINGUISHED MAJORS APPLICATION FORM

Name: _____

ID#: _____ Date: _____

Local Address: _____

Email: _____

Proposed Thesis Advisor (must be member of AMST faculty):

GPA in College as of date of application: _____

GPA in American Studies as of application: _____

Questions:

Prof. Grace Hale, AMST Distinguished Majors Program Director
hale@virginia.edu

<http://www.americanstudies.virginia.edu/distinguished-majors-program-dmp>